MHCSA Fall Conference

November 4, 2016 | 8:30 am — 3:15 pm

Safe Patient Mobilization:
Protecting Caregivers from Harm

Robert Williamson, RN, BSN, CSPHP, CWCP, Dir. Assoc. Safety, Ascension Risk Services

Healthcare workers sustain some of the highest rates of occupational injury. The leading cause is associated with lifting and moving patients. Participants will learn key strategies to help prevent these types of injuries.

How to Revitalize Your Slip, Trip and Fall Program

Ken Smith, CHSP, CIE, CHCM, Dir. of Assoc. Safety, SCL Health

This interactive presentation will provide innovative ideas and processes to revitalize your slip, trip, and fall program. The instructor will get participants involved in the discussion of proactive programs to demonstrate proven slip, trip, and fall prevention methods.

Avoiding Accreditation Pitfalls

Jonathan Flannery, MHSA, CHFM, FASHE, FACHE, Sr. Assoc. Dir., Advocacy - ASHE/AHA

This session will apply codes and standards to protect patients, promote environmental sustainability, and avoid frequent findings during surveys. Areas covered include: accreditation decision rules; the survey process and scoring; utility systems; ventilation; means of egress; cylinder storage; fire protection; and general requirements. Root causes to 2014 Joint Commission findings in EOC and Life Safety will be shared.

Essential Elements of a
Workplace Violence Prevention Program

Robert Williamson, RN, BSN, CSPHP, CWCP, Dir. Assoc. Safety, Ascension Risk Services

Healthcare workers sustain some of the highest rates of occupational injury. A growing concern today is the prevalence of workplace violence occurring in healthcare. Participants will learn about contributing factors related to WPV and discuss strategies for prevention.

How to Revitalize Your
Sharps Injury Prevention Program

Ken Smith, CHSP, CIE, CHCM, Dir. of Assoc. Safety, SCL Health

This interactive presentation will provide innovative ideas and processes to revitalize your sharps prevention program. The instructor will get participants involved in the discussion of proactive programs to demonstrate proven prevention methods with positive outcomes.
